

PROFILE OF H.E. HON. DR. ELVIS C. ENYIOKO
CHAIRMAN, WORLD COUNCIL, CCLP WORLDWIDE
& COUNTRY AMBASSADOR, CCLP WORLDWIDE – NIGERIA

Dr. Elvis C. Enyioko is an Optometrist by training, having graduated in 1994, and practiced the Optometric profession for about a decade in the foremost Specialist Eye Hospital in the South of Nigeria.

He was an active member of the Nigerian Optometric Association (NOA) Rivers State Chapter, rising to the position of the Secretary of the State Chapter for two terms of two years each. In recognition of his outstanding performance in bringing stability to the secretariat of the State Chapter and assisting the State Chairman in driving his vision of growth, the members of the Rivers State Chapter of NOA, rallied round him in support of his bid to become the National Secretary of the Nigerian Optometric Association (NOA).

In a keenly contested election, Dr. Elvis emerged victorious as the National Secretary of NOA for the 2000 – 2002 tenure. His tenure witnessed a phenomenal growth in membership and surpassed his success as the State Secretary.

In 2006, in recognition of his organizational skills and his immeasurable power of creativity, a governorship candidate in his home state, invited him as his Chief Personal Aide in charge of Strategy, Supply and Transport, a position that enabled him to work closely with politicians and government personnel, where he observed closely the inner workings of government.

He quit politics voluntary and proceeded to study an M.Sc in HIV/AIDS Prevention, Management & Strategy in a reputable UK institution.

In his passion to see to the reduction in morbidity and mortality in medical emergencies, he accepted an appointment with a Nigeria organization involved in emergency and disaster management, where he doubled as the Special Assistant to the Executive Chairman and the Country Program Manager for the organization's corporate social responsibility initiatives, where he lead so many projects, such as managing the School Emergency Response Team (SERT) training and establishment in selected schools in collaboration with the South South Zone of the National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA).

He also had a significant input in the establishment of a 24 hour toll free Public Safety Answering Point System for the benefit of his then employer and was instrumental in conceptualizing policies for the smooth operation of the group.

On behalf of his former employer, he conceptualized and designed the Emergency Medical Services and Emergency Communication System for the Health and Human Services Secretariat of the Federal Capital Territory Administration (FCTA) Abuja, Nigeria.

Currently Dr. Elvis C. Enyioko is the Managing Director/CEO of the Central Emergency Medical Clearing House Ltd (CEMCH), a company with expertise in conceptualizing and designing Emergency Medical Services (EMS), Emergency Communication Systems, the establishment of EMS, emergency audit and training.

CEMCH Ltd is an official and recognized training center of both the American Safety and Health Institute (ASHI) and Medic First Aid International of Oregon USA.

He is also the National Consultant of a national charity, the SOCA FOUNDATION and the National Project Director of the SOCA RESCUE PROJECT.

Dr. Elvis C. Enyioko is the former President of the Amadi Flat Chapter of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International (FGBMFI), Port Harcourt, Nigeria.

The Founder and National President of the Thunderbolt Sermon Preachers' International (TSPI), a Christian anti-cult organization and the former Chairman Contact Lens Task Force and the former Men's Leader of his local church in Port Harcourt Nigeria.

Dr. Elvis is a recipient of the Rotary International Club of Port Harcourt Merit Award for Contribution to Humanity.

He is also the recipient of Letter of Commendation from the National Youth Service Corp (NYSC) Nigeria.

He is a published author of the following books;

1. Say No to Cult and Live (1998)
2. Beyond the Campus Cults: An Exegesis on Moral (1999)
3. Holy Men in Politics (2005)

Dr. Elvis C. Enyioko has attended so many leadership and professional courses.

